NOTE.—In the transliteration of names originally written in Russian the system followed so far as possible is that of Nature 41, 396-7 (1890) in which u is used instead of the o or u of other spellings sk instead of sch ch instead of tsch z instead of z or y etc. Thus Pavlov not Pawlow Chugaev not Tschugaev To make quite sure users of the index should in such a case look under both spellings
